FRENCH REPORT SAYS "PARTICULARLY QUIET"

Although the Usual Artillery Duels and Attacks by Infantry at Various Places are in Progress-Petrograd Admits Russian Armies Have Been Pushed Back at Least Fifty Miles From the German Border Toward Warsaw-Russians are Following Up Previous Successes in Galicia-Russia and Turkey send Contradictory Reports of Naval Battle in Black Sea-British Drive Ottoman Forces From Trenches Near Persia Gulf.

Although only meagre reports are at hand from any of the scenes of hostilities, it seems probable that on the western strip of Poland, with its northern and southern boundaries respectively the Vistula and Warta rivers, and its western front the border of Posen, the most severe contest for supremacy is proceeding.

Amsterdam gives the following official statement:

"The battle in Russian Poland progresses favorably. Accordign to the day's information, our troops have captured 7,000 prisoners, 15 machine guns and several field guns."

DETAILS OF NAVAL BATTLE

Quiet in France. Particularly quiet" is the description of the operations in the western one given by the French war office, though the usual artiflery duels and tracks by infantry at various places are in progress. Tracy-le-Val. a hort distance to the northeast of aris, and at the crock of the elbow of the western battle front, was the printipal scene in the infantry attacks. ard the German frontier.

Along the East Pruesian border the Muscovites claim that they are continually pressing forward and making intoods on German territory. Here also Germany makes no claims.

In regard to the operations in southern Galicia and in southern Russian Poland, the Russians, according to unofficial reports, are still following upprevious successes against the Austrians. On the other hand, a news agency despatch from Vienna declares the Austrians have captured 7,000 prisoners and a large number of guns.

Naval Battle in Black Sea.

Naval Battle in Black Sea.

A battle has taken place in the Black sea between Russian and Turkish warships. As to its result the reports are contradictory. Petrograd claims that the former German cruiser Goeben, which now files the Turkish flag, was struck by Russian shells, that explosions occurred on board her, and that she quit the encounter and disappeared in the fog, taking advantage of her speed. Constantinople, through Berlin, makes no mention of the Goeben having been injured, but says one Russian battleship was badly damaged and that the others fied toward Sebastopel, off which place the fight occurred.

The British again have been successful in an attack on a Turkish position. The force operating on the Shatel-Arab river and the Persian gull drove from their trenches an Ottoman force and captured a number of prisoners and guns and a quantity of ammunition. The British, however, lost three officers and 35 men killed in the attack. The Turkish casualties were not stated.

BANKS ASK PERMISSION TO LOWER THEIR RATES.

Although Rediscounting Operations Have Amounted to Only a Few

Washington, Nov. 19.—Although rediscornting operations by federal reservabanks in three days have paramounted to only a few million dollars, several of the banks already have sent requests to the federal reserve board of for permission to lower the rates. No information was given out tonight by the board, but it was understood the districts which ask a lower rate are in the south and west.

There is no present intention on the part of the board to change the rates, and such action is not likely to be taken until all the reserves of member banks required at this time have been transferred to the reserve bank vaults. Reports today indicated that nearly $200,000,000 already has been transferred in the tweive districts, leaving between $50,000,000 and $60,000,000 to be received. The greater portion of this sum is believed here to be due from country banks and delays in transportation probably account for its failure to pt in an earlier appearance.

JURISDICTIONAL FIGHT AT

Philadelphia, Nov. 19 .- What was regarded as the most important jurisdictional fight in the American Federation of Labor this year was settled in convention today in favor of telephone and telegraph messages the International Union of Elevator with as little inconvenience as possible Constructors over the International association of Machinists. More than five years the machinists sought to have the elevator constructors amalgamate with them, in order to do away with numerous jurisdictional disputes. The matter has been before several conventions of the federation which has favored the Amalgamation, but the elevator men have always been able to fight over the merger.

Today the committee of adjustment reported a resolution instructing the president and executive council of the federation to call a conference of the parties in interest within 30 days for the purpose of bringing about amalgamation.

James Duncan, first vicee president of the federation, offered a substitute resolution which provided that the present status of the elevator constructors be continued, with the understanding that the elevator men, with the assistance of the machinists and allied trades and the co-operation of the executive council of the federation, make every effort within their power by trade agreements and otherwise to erect only material that has been manufactured by union men.

There was a long discussion on the substitute and it was adopted by a vote of 11,590 to 8,048. of 11,590 to 8,048.
